VALERII KOLESNIK
.NET C# DEVELOPER

I won't follow your strict rules. I will ask a lot of regular and inconvenient questions in order to seek solutions for your projects. App development for me is not just about writing some code. My general aim is to bring purpose to the product, make it precious. I put my best to each project and bring high quality and fresh look to it. I respect each stakeholder in the production chain and wait for respect to my thoughts. That is why I will be hard to make some soft.
